

LIZ O'BRIEN

New York

MAURICE GARNIER (1880 1945)

Zodiaque No. 1 – Le Sagittaire.

Bas-relief wall sculpture in terracotta, stone, and stoneware. Signed lower right.
French, c. 1935.

Maurice Garnier was a French sculptor best known for his work in modernist gardens. His work at the Jardin des Gobelins in Paris, a collaboration with the architect Jean-Charles Moreux, is featured in the monograph Jean-Charles MOREUX: Architecte-Decorateur-Paysagiste.

The artist's highly imaginative treatments of classical subject matter is often rendered in relief with the use of stones, fragments of ceramic, Shells, coral and other natural materials.

Measurements:

20"H x 24"W x 2"D

