

LIZ O'BRIEN

New York

STEPHEN ANTONSON & ESTHER BRUTON (1896-1992)

Fireplace surround with 3 terrazzo panels, beautifully composed and shaded with scenes evocative of cave paintings like those at Lascaux. The palette is tonal with shades of beige, gray, terra-cotta and black. The line drawing is executed with inlaid brass, as is the signature: EB. American, c. 1935

The mantel is a contemporary contribution by STEPHEN ANTONSON with quarter-round profile in hand-sculpted plaster finish

Dimensions

50"H x 72"W overall

32"H x 36"W inside

Each panel is 10" wide

Reference #3227

LIZ O'BRIEN

New York

Esther Bruton is best known as a skilled muralist and screen painter. Born in Alameda, California in 1896, she was raised there with her two sisters Margaret and Helen who were also artists. All of the sisters had unique talents and Esther's was her ability to work with wood and paint.