

ROBERT GOOSSENS

Three-tier chandelier in gilt bronze and rock crystal.
The eighteen arms are modeled as tree branches and hung with leaves and coarse shards of rock crystal.
A large crystal is suspended from the bottom.
French, c. 1995.

Robert Goossens is well known for his jewelry designs for Balenciaga, Madame Grès and Chanel. Coco Chanel, who was the first to commission jewelry and accessories
from the artist, called Goossens her “barbarian goldsmith”.

Measurements

Height: 52”

Diameter: 58”

